

SEBASTIAN WALTON

Magician

Magic Circle Stage Magician of the Year 2016 Sebastian Walton is established as a top quality performer that guarantees to leave his audiences spellbound.

In addition to winning the title of Young Magician of the Year in 2013 he has performed at The very prestigious World famous Magic Castle in Hollywood, LA.

For such a young man he has compelling warmth that connects to his performance using humour and immaculate delivery. He is equally at ease working close up with intimate close proximity magic as he is performing to large audiences on centre stage.

Whatever you choose Sebastian will always delight and amaze the audience with his world class ability which leaves people wanting more.

He has appeared on BBC Breakfast TV, CBBC and regional ITV programmes and recieved wide acclaim for his achievements in The Times and National Media.

He is a young man who is destined for the very top of his profession, who never fails to impress with his down to earth, polite and disarming mischievousness.
