

Harry Moulding

Harry fell in love with magic when he was just 11 years old. Within a couple of months, he started entering magic competitions and taking home winning trophies!

Harry's passion for magic continued to progress over time. When Harry left school, he joined the cast of the Award-Winning House of Illusion Magic and Mystery Theatre Show in Spain.

In 2022, Harry decided it was time to return to the UK and launch as a magician and now performs impressive magic and hosts to audiences across the country. He creates an engaging experience for all guests, no matter what your event entails.

Harry has been a member of The World Famous Magic Circle since 2020 and in 2025 he won the eighteenth series of Britain's Got Talent!

MAKE YOUR NEXT CORPORATE EVENT SPECTACULAR

Harry can perform incredible magic and host to audiences of any size. He combines charisma, confidence, and professionalism to support each client with their event. As a result, you can guarantee your guests will be impressed and talk about your event for years to come.

CHARISMATIC AND PROFESSIONAL

If you're looking to create excitement and blow the minds of your guests, you'll want to consider Harry's unforgettable magic performances. Harry creates a comfortable atmosphere by walking around to greet guests as they mingle, breaking the ice straight away. He also completes intimate table magic to keep guests entertained while waiting for the next course.

And that's not all, you can also see Harry take on a fantastic stand-up style cabaret performance to the whole room! This performance is guaranteed to leave guests with a truly memorable experience.

Like the idea of cabaret being a little more personal to your event? Worry not, Harry can involve specific members of your audience. So, whether you're trying to impress a VIP client or bring a smile to the CEO's face, all you need to do is ask!
