Join the former 3 time super-middleweight World Champion Carl Froch for an exclusive insight into his glittering career

Carl Froch, MBE is a British former professional boxer who competed from 2002 to 2014, and has since worked as a boxing analyst and commentator for Sky Sports. Known for his aggressive crowd-pleasing style, formidable punching power, stamina, and toughness, Froch is considered by many to have one of the best chins of his era.

He has numerous career highlights including inflicting defeats on Mikkel Kessler, Lucian Bute. An epic last round stoppage of Jermain Taylor and knocking out George Groves in front of a record breaking Wembley crowd with what has been described as, 'The best punch you will ever see in a British Boxing Ring'.

YOUR HOST FOR THE EVENING...

Ritchie Woodhall

Ritchie Woodhall held the WBC super-middleweight title from 1998 to 1999. Prior to this Ritchie was a 1988 Olympian in Seoul, where he won a Bronze medal. He retired from professional boxing in 2000 after losing to Joe Calzaghe in a bid for Calzaghe's WBO (World Boxing Organisation) title. Woodhall's professional boxing record consisted of 26 wins and only 3 losses. Ritchie is now a permanent fixture on various media platforms providing expert boxing commentary and analysis.
