

Mad Hen

With in excess of 1000 bookings globally, and over 15 years experience, Madhen's enviable reputation as one of the world's finest party bands continues to soar.

Madhen are Helen, Matthew, Martyn, Andy and Paul. Their line up remains unchanged after 15 years; testament to their dedication and success. Mad Hen's extensive experience performing at corporate events and private parties all over the globe helps set them apart. They bring professionalism, versatility, energy and above all fun to every aspect of what they do – both on and off stage.

Madhen strive to push the boundaries of what a party band can offer, both musically and technically. They are renowned for their musical mashups that keep the dance floor filled. Nothing demonstrates this better than their latest innovation: Switch. This show combines unique musical arrangements with bespoke synchronised LED-loaded costumes and guitars. Together with multiple video walls, and integrated lighting design Switch makes for a multi sensory party experience.

Of course this level of production isn't for everyone. No matter how big or small the event, Madhen will make your event one to remember for both you and your guests. Madhen aim to exceed the expectations of each and every client. Whether you're planning a private party, or looking for a show-stopping spectacle for your next corporate event, Madhen will offer you the support, professionalism and excellence you need – both creatively and technically, from initial enquiry to the band's very last chord.
