Resilience – don't get too high or too low
What's the worst that's going to happen
- Keeping a positive mindset
What does a positive mindset look like? - What affects that?
Strategies for coping in turbulent times

When passion meets inspiration, an obsession is born

A player for the big occasion, Jill Scott is one of just 11 Lionesses centurions. The influential midfielder steps up to the plate whenever her country needs her most, and her 15-year England career has been punctuated with some key strikes – think the winner against Netherlands in the Euro 2009 semi-final, the equaliser against Belgium in Euro 2017 qualifying and the cute finish in the 3-0 win over Wales which sealed England's place at France 2019.. - FA Lionesses Profile
